- (e) Redundancy means a situation where the Employer proposes to permanently cease operating all or part of its business; and this cessation results in one or more full-time or part-time employees becoming surplus to the Employer's labour requirements.

Redundancy does not include:

 - long-term operational requirements as to employee's skills, experience and potential; and considerations of seniority, equity and fairness.

Payment shall be by electronic transfer on the day after the underpayment was reported. If payment is late due to external issues related to bank transfers and/or agency failure that result in total payroll or large sections being delayed, the Employer will make all efforts to deal with these issues as soon as possible.
