Manufacturing and associated industries

COMMISSIONER LEE

MELBOURNE, 22 JULY 2022

*Application for approval of the Gunnedah Leather Processors Pty Ltd (Production)
Enterprise Agreement 2022*

[1] An application has been made for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the Gunnedah Leather Processors Pty Ltd (Production) Enterprise Agreement 2022 (the Agreement). The application was made pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (the Act). It has been made by Gunnedah Leather Processors Pty Ltd T/A Gunnedah Leather Processors Pty Ltd. The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[2] The Employer has provided written undertakings. A copy of the undertakings is attached in Annexure A. I am satisfied that the undertakings will not cause financial detriment to any employee covered by the Agreement and that the undertakings will not result in substantial changes to the Agreement. The undertakings are taken to be a term of the agreement.

[3] Subject to the undertakings referred to above, I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss.186, 187, 188 and 190 as are relevant to this application for approval have been met.

[4] Pursuant to s.202(4) of the Act, the model flexibility term prescribed by the Fair Work Regulations 2009 is taken to be a term of the Agreement.

[5] The Australasian Meat Industry Employees Union being a bargaining representative for the Agreement, has given notice under s.183 of the Act that it wants the Agreement to cover it. In accordance with s.201(2) I note that the Agreement covers the organisation.

[6] I observe that the following provisions are likely to be inconsistent with the National Employment Standards (NES):

- Clause 17.5.3 – Abandonment of Employment.
- Clause 18.2.2 – Notice of termination by an employee.
- Clause 35.2 – Personal/Carer’s Leave.
- Clause 37.1 – Compassionate Leave.

However, noting clause 9 of the Agreement, I am satisfied the more beneficial entitlements of the NES will prevail where there is an inconsistency between the Agreement and the NES.

[7] The Agreement is approved and, in accordance with s.54 of the Act, will operate from 29 July 2022. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 29 July 2025.

11. INTRODUCTION OF MAJOR CHANGE IN THE WORKPLACE

11.1. Employer's duty to notify

- 11.1.1. Where the employer has made a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer shall notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and the AMIEU.
- 11.1.2. Significant effects include termination of employment, major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities, promotion opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations and the restructuring of jobs. Provided that where the agreement makes provision for alteration of any of the matters referred to herein an alteration shall be deemed not to have significant effect.

11.2. Employer's duty to discuss change

- 11.2.1. The employer shall discuss with the employees affected and the AMIEU, the introduction of the proposed changes, the effects the changes are likely to have on employees, measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on employees and shall give prompt consideration to matters raised by the employees and/ or the AMIEU.
- 11.2.2. The discussions shall commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in clause 10.1 hereof,
- 11.2.3. For the purposes of such discussion, the employer shall provide in writing to the employees concerned and the AMIEU if formally requested, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed; the expected effects of the changes on employees and any other matters likely to affect employees, provided that any employer shall not be required to disclose confidential information the disclosure of which would be adverse to the employer's interests.

11.3. Consultation about changes to roster or hours of work

- 11.3.1. Where an employer proposes to change an employee's regular roster or ordinary hours of work, the employer must consult with the employee or employees affected and their representatives, if any, about the proposed change.

12. STAND-DOWN PROVISIONS

- 12.1. Notwithstanding anything elsewhere contained in this clause, the employer shall have the right to deduct payment for any day, or part day, on which an employee cannot be usefully employed, because of lack of work caused by a strike, through any breakdown of machinery or any stoppage of work or by any cause for which the employer cannot reasonably be held responsible.
- 12.2. The application of this provision is subject to notice being given to employees on the day prior to the stand down, except for circumstances of machinery breakdown and other reasons where prior notice is not possible.
- 12.3. At the end of the stand down period employment will resume and employment will be deemed to have been continuous subject to adjustments to service entitlements.
- 12.4. The parties recognise the need for flexibility and the need to make special arrangements to suit work requirements.
- 12.5. Following equipment breakdown or other unforeseen circumstance that the employer is not responsible for, workgroups may be stood down immediately and may be asked to report to work later that day or on some other day. The employees requested to report later that day or on some other day will be paid their ordinary hours for the time actually worked. Upon recall to work, consecutive time actually worked in periods that would normally attract a shift penalty will be paid at such penalties for the time worked. Hours worked in excess of the standard day's hours may be paid at the applicable Additional Hours rates. The company further agrees that it will not unreasonably disadvantage any individual unable to attend work later who is dealing in good faith. The workforce will work with the company to reduce the effect of someone being unable to re-attend.

13. PROCEDURES FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES

- 13.1. In the event of a dispute about a matter under this Agreement, a dispute in relation to the National Employment Standards or a dispute concerning any other employment related matter save for termination of employment, the procedures for resolving the dispute are as follows
- 13.1.1. The employee/s concerned will first meet and confer with their immediate supervisor. The employee/s may appoint another person to act on their behalf including a shop steward or delegate of the AMIEU. Subject to 13.2 and 13.3 where the AMIEU delegate is involved he/she shall be allowed the necessary time during working hours to interview the employee(s) and the supervisor.
- 13.1.2. If the matter is not resolved at such a meeting the parties will arrange further discussions involving more senior management as appropriate. The employee may invite an AMIEU official to be involved in the discussions. The employer may also invite into the discussions an officer of the employer organisation to which the employer belongs. The AMIEU delegate shall be allowed at a place designated by the employer, a reasonable period of time during working hours to interview the AMIEU official.
- 13.1.3. If the matter remains unresolved, the parties shall jointly or individually refer the matter to Fair Work Commission for assistance in resolving the matter by 13.2. In order to facilitate the procedure in 13.1:

- 13.2.1. The party with the grievance must notify the other party at the earliest opportunity of the problem;
- 13.2.2. Throughout all stages of the procedure all relevant facts must be clearly identified and recorded;
- 13.2.3. Sensible time limits must be allowed for completion of the various stages of discussion. However, the parties must co-operate to ensure that the disputes resolution procedures are carried out as quickly as possible.

13.3. While the parties are attempting to resolve the matter the parties will continue to work in accordance with this Agreement and their contract of employment unless the employee has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his/her or her health and safety. Subject to relevant provisions of any occupational health and safety law, even if the employee has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his/her or her health or safety, the employee must not unreasonably fail to comply with a direction by his/her or her employer to perform other available work, whether at the same enterprise or another enterprise, that is safe and appropriate for the employee to perform.

13.4. Dispute settlement training leave

- 13.4.1. A single AMIEU delegate shall be entitled to, and the employer shall grant up to three days with pay per year, non-cumulative, to attend courses conducted by AMIEU on the following conditions:

 - the taking of leave is taken having regard to the operational requirements of the employer;
 - the delegate taking such leave shall be paid all ordinary time earnings which normally become due and payable during the period of leave;
 - leave of absence granted pursuant to this clause will count as service for all purposes of this award.

14. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

14.1. The following procedure shall be followed where warnings/counselling are required:

STEP 1	The employee's Supervisor / Manager may issue the employee with a verbal warning. At this stage the employee will receive counselling to make him/her aware of the unsatisfactory performance and/or conduct, the Company's expectations and action required to correct the problem. This verbal warning will be documented.
STEP 2	Should the employee continue to present a poor performance or poor conduct the employee will receive a first written warning.
STEP 3	Should the employee continue to present a poor performance or poor conduct the employee will receive a 2 nd and final written warning,
STEP 4	If action is not taken to correct the unsatisfactory performance and or conduct this may result in the employee being suspended for one week (without pay) or terminated and given a letter of termination.

- 14.2. At all stages of the warning/disciplinary procedure the employee shall be provided with the opportunity to reply and be entitled to have a Union delegate or support/advocate present.
- 14.3. Each counselling/warning shall advise the duration it is to apply for up to a maximum of twelve (12) months from the date that it is issued. Counselling and warnings over 12 months old can still be used in building a history of the employees conduct and performance. In progressing from one level of counselling/warning to another the most recent counselling/warning may be used as the basis to escalate the level of warning/counselling to be issued on a new or continuing problem, breach, or behaviour.
- 14.4. Depending on the seriousness of the matter, some or all of the above warnings may be skipped and the disciplinary process escalated as determined appropriate by the company in the circumstances.

15. ABSENTEEISM MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

- 15.1. For the purposes of this clause, "absenteeism" is defined as any absence from work.

 - 15.2.1. unauthorised absences from work
 - 15.2.2. regular or consistent absence from work without satisfactory reason.
 - 15.2.3. any other absence without satisfactory reason.

For the purposes of this sub-clause, an "unauthorised absence" is defined as an absence which has not been approved prior to the absence or subsequently authorised according to the individual circumstance.

- 15.3. In considering whether an employee should be placed on an Absenteeism Management Program, the following will apply:

Included in this amount is 7.6 hours of annual leave which is in lieu of an additional public holiday formally known as the "Butchers Picnic Day". In the event of the proclamation of an additional public holiday, the above additional day of annual leave will be recognised as the equivalent of this additional public holiday.

A minimum of three weeks' notice is required for all annual leave requests. A response will be provided to the employee who has applied for annual leave no later than one week following the application being made. The Company reserves the right to decline annual leave requests based on operational requirements. In special circumstances the Company may approve annual leave requested with less than three weeks' notice.

34.2. Seven Day Shift workers

In addition to the leave prescribed in Clause 34.1, a seven day shift worker who is regularly rostered to work on Sundays and Public Holidays will be entitled to an additional 38 hours leave after each period of 12 months continuous service.

If during the year of employment the employee has served only a portion of it as a seven-day shift worker, the additional leave is 3.167 hours for each completed month of employment as a seven-day shift worker. Where the additional leave is or comprises a fraction of a day such fraction does not form part of the leave period and any such fraction must be discharged by payment only.

34.3. Public Holidays during leave

Where any public holiday falls within an employee's period of annual leave and is observed on a day which in the case of that employee would have been an ordinary working day, there shall be added to the period of annual leave time equivalent to the ordinary time which the employee would have worked if the day had not been a public holiday.

34.6. Annual leave loading

34.6.3. This clause does not apply to Drum Operators.

34.7. Payment of annual leave on termination of employment

Where leave has been taken in advance by an employee and the employment of the employee is then terminated, the employer will use the amount already paid to offset any sums which would otherwise be paid. If the moneys already paid to the employee are still in excess of whatever monies would be otherwise payable, the excess will be deducted from any remuneration payable to the employee upon termination.

34.8. Annual close-down

34.8.1. The employer may close down a plant or a section of plant for the purpose of allowing annual leave to all or the bulk of the employees in the plant or sections concerned on up to two occasions each year, which may be up to 28 days total aggregate duration exclusive of public holidays.

34.8.2. Where the employer closes down a plant or a section for the purpose of allowing annual leave to all or the bulk of the employees in the plant or sections concerned, the employer should, where possible, give the employees concerned not less than three months' notice of its intention to stand down for the duration of the close-down all employees in the plant or sections concerned.

34.8.3. The next twelve monthly qualifying period for each employee affected by the close-down will commence from the day on which the plant or section concerned is re-opened for work. Provided that all time during which an employee is stood off without pay for the purposes of this clause will be deemed to be time of service in the next twelve monthly qualifying period.

Employees with excessive accrued annual leave may be required by the company to take annual leave subject to:

 - .1. by a separate agreement in writing between the employer and the employee,
 - .2. at the employee's request, and will not be refused other than for genuine operational reasons.

This certificate should within reason specify the nature of the illness and the period (dates inclusive) which the employee will be unfit to work. If it is not reasonably practicable for the employee to give the employer a medical certificate, then a Certificate for Personal Leave from a chemist is will be required. This obligation also applies in relation to a period of carer's leave.

- (a) Where an employee has more than 15 days of accumulated untaken personal/carers leave, the employee may elect in writing that an equivalent payment will be made to the employee and the employer will pay such an employee for any accumulated untaken personal/carers leave, from the accrued leave for that year, exceeding 15 days, up to a maximum payment of 76 hours.
